Mr. Livingſton from the committee of commerce and manufactures, made a report on the petition of ſundry proprietors and workers of coal mines, in the ſtate of Virginia, who prayed for a prohibition of the importation of coals, or an increaſe of duty, on the ground that their mines are ſufficient for the conſumption of the United States. The committee report, that as coal is every day becoming more an article of the firſt neceſſity they do not think it would be right to comply with the prayer of the petition, eſpecially as the duty paid on exportation in England is equal to the firſt coſt of the coal, and a duty of five cents a buſhel is already paid on its importation into this country—committed for Monday.

The ſame gentleman preſented a petition from the coach and chair makers of New-York, ſtating, that notwithſtanding the duty which had been laid on the importation of carriages, they are yet imported without duty, by the perſons exporting them ſtating that they are ſecond hand; they pray, therefore, for a remedy of this grievance. Mr. Otis from the committee to whom was referred that part of the Preſident's ſpeech which has relation to foreign conſuls directed him to aſk leave to be diſcharged from the conſideration of that buſineſs, in order that it might be referred to the committee of the whole to whom has been referred the bill providing for the expences of government for the year 1798, as an item could be introduced into that bill without going through the formalities of a bill for that purpoſe.

This motion was oppoſed by Meſſrs. Gallatin and Nicholas, as they were not certain that the expences alluded to were authorized by law; and if they were not, it would be proper to authorize the expences, before they appropriated money to pay them.

The motion was put and negatived, 37 to 33.

The meſſage yeſterday received from the Preſident of the United States was read as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Senate, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

"In obedience to the law, I now preſent to both houſes of Congreſs, my annual account of expenditure from the contingent fund, during the year 1797, by which it appears, that on the firſt of January laſt, there remained in the treaſury a balance of 15,494 dollars and 24 cents, ſubject to future diſpoſitions of government.

JOHN ADAMS.

"United States, Feb. 12, 1798.

It was ordered to be printed.

The ſame gentleman alſo made a report on the petition of Sylvanus Crowell, managing owner of three ſchooners employed in the cod fiſhery in the year 1796, but a fire having deſtroyed the agreements between the owner, maſters and crews, he was prevented from receiving the bounty allowed by law The committee finding there was at leaſt prima facia evidence of the fact, reported favorably and recommend a bill for his relief, which report was concurred in by the houſe.

The ſpeaker ſaid the buſineſs firſt in order was the unfiniſhed buſineſs of the bill providing for our intercourſe with foreign nations.

Mr. Gallatin moved to poſtpone the unfiniſhed buſineſs, for the purpoſe of taking up the bill making appropriations for the ſupport of government for the year 1798, as government was at preſent drawing money by way of anticipation. There was alſo a report of the committee of claims, on the ſubject of excepting certain claims from the operation of the limitation acts, which he thought it would be well ſoon to act upon, as the delay of it might induce ſpeculations, which it would be better to prevent.

After ſome few objections to a poſtponement of the unfiniſhed buſineſs, it was, at length, agreed to poſtpone it for the purpoſe of taking up the appropriation bill.

The houſe accordingly reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole on the bill appropriating for the ſupport of government for the year 1798, Mr. Dent in the chair; and after having agreed to the various items therein contained, with little or no debate, the committee roſe, and the houſe concurred in the amendments which had been agreed to in the committee of the whole, and the bill was ordered to be engroſſed for a third reading.

Mr. Harper, from the committee of ways and means, who had been inſtructed to enquire whether any and what alterations are neceſſary in the law reſpecting the entry of Still, was directed to make a report on the ſubject. The report was accompanied by a bill making an alteration in the manner of making the entry of Stills, by doing away the annual entry after the firſt of July next and requiring that after a ſtill has been once entered, it ſhall be again entered only in caſe of removal. This report and bill were committed for Monday.

The ſame gentleman from the ſame committee, to whom it had been referred to inquire whether any and what alterations are neceſſary in the act laying a duty on ſtamped veſſum parchment and paper, was directed to make a further report, recommending that a deduction of 7 1-2 per cent. ſhould be allowed to all purchaſers of ſtamps (except collectors of revenue) above the value of twenty dollars, and that a certain deduction ſhould be retained by the collectors of the impoſt duty, from drawbacks on goods exported, inſtead of the ſtamp duty propoſed to be laid, which it was ſtated would fall very unequally, according to the ſcale propoſed in the law. A bill was reported at the ſame time making theſe alterations in the law.—The report and bill were committed for Monday.

The bill making appropriations for the ſupport of Government for year 1798, and for other purpoſes, was read the time and paſſed.

The bill from the Senate for ſale of land between the Great and Little Miamis, in the territory north weſt of the Ohio, was alſo taken up and committed for Monday.

The report was favorable.

Mr. Davis moved to amend the report, by adding MILITIA OFFICERS. He thought it was only reaſonable, that an allowance ſhould be made to the widows and orphans of militia officers, as well as to thoſe of the officers of the army. The Kentucky militia were out on that expedition, and ſeveral officers were killed.

Mr. D. Foſter propoſed to make the proviſion general, and to go back to the 4th of March 1789.

Some objections were urged to this amendment, as it was apprehended, from its comprehenſiveneſs, it might endanger the paſſage of the bill, as the Senate had rejected a former bill of this kind. The committee roſe without coming to any deciſion, and had leave to ſit again.

Adjourned.

February 15.

Mr. D. Foſter from the committee of claims, made an unfavorable report on the petition of Thomas Lewis, Aid-de-camp to General Wayne, which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

The committee roſe, the houſe concurred in the amendment, and the committee of claims was directed to bring in a bill accordingly.

Mr. Livingſton ſaid, the delegates from the State of New-York, had received inſtructions from the legiſlature of that ſtate, to uſe their endeavours to get removed a difficulty which exiſted in a ſuit now pending, in which there was a claſhing of juriſdiction between the ſtates of New-York and Connecticut. In order to remove this difficulty, and others of a ſimilar nature in future, he propoſed a reſolution to the following effect:

"Reſolved, That proviſion ought to be made by law, allowing the trial of all caſes in which one or more ſtates may be intereſted, by a jury to be taken from a ſtate not intereſted in ſuch ſuit or ſuits."

Ordered to lie on the table.

The Day, and the Man whoſe Birth gave diſtinction to it—May he long live to enjoy health, happineſs, and this tribute of his Country's gratitude and approbation.

The Preſident of the United States—May the radiance of his virtues and intelligence diſſipate the exotic vapours which infect our political atmoſphere, and reſtore to us the ſalutary breezes of patriotiſm, which wafted the National Bark into the port of Independence and Proſperity.

May we do unto all Nations as we would they ſhould do unto us; that is, deal honeſtly by and make the beſt uſe of them without fear or favonr, partiality or prejudice.

May the bonds of fraternity embrace all the Children of theſe States, and become a rampart againſt Foreign Influence.

May the deteſtible act of Man-ſlabber be puniſhed with the pillory, and never more diſgrace a National Aſſembly.

DIED in Waſhington on Sunday laſt, univerſally regretted, Col. MATTHEW RITCHIE, Judge of the court of Common Pleas;—born in Scotland, and for twenty ſeven years a citizen of America, For native politeneſs of manners, genuine ſimplicity of conduct, manly firmneſs of mind, ſound rectitude of judgment, and true integrity of heart, he was equalled by few, ſurpaſſed by none. His ſincere attachment to Government, perfect reſpect for law, candid benevolence of heart, and warm ſympathy of friendſhip, have left an impreſſion on all who knew him, that only the ſtroke which removed him, can eraſe.

Returns of the Election of Senator from the City, Northern Liberties, Southwark, Buſtletown, Blockley and Kingſington, Germantown and Darby, have been received; it appears Iſrael Iſrael has a majority of 210 votes—The returns of three diſtricts of Delaware county are yet wanting. The Directory intend to appoint a miniſter extraordinary to the court of Berlin, to compliment his Pruſſian majeſty on his acceſſion to the Throne—an acceſſion which they conſider, at this time, very important when England & Ruſſia endeavour to circumvent the young king, that they may get poſeſſion of his mind, which is ſaid to be bold and enterprizing, and ſecure in their favor the influence of the cabinet, which will be very conſiderable in the congreſs at Radſtadt.

PARIS, December 6.

The three months of the Preſidency of Reveilliere Lepeax being expired, Barras is declared Preſident in his ſtead.

The following perſons have been arreſted on a charge of being implicated in a royal conſpiracy, diſcovered by the miniſter of Police.

Noel, Inſpector of the Police under Cochon; Molieu of Calais, ahead implicated in the affair of Donan and Bothier, Morieus, Pollet, Dupont, Fontaine, Chonlan, Fillet, Francois, formerly advocate at Macon, and a female named Poiſſiere, with her brothers.

What is as yet known of this conſpiracy does not afford a clear or diſtinct idea of it. The conſpirators are ſaid to be accomplices of thoſe philanthropic ſocieties mentioned in the papers that were printed at the epoch of the 18th Fructidor. Their means of counter revolution were the management of the approaching elections, ſo as to royalize them, and exclude the Republicans. All the perſons arreſted are confined in the Temple.
